2010 DVAM Resource Packet

The DVAP Advisory Group uses a diverse and collective voice to promote safe, respectful, and equitable relationships; increase survivor's access to support systems that are culturally and linguistically appropriate; and foster programming that is responsive to the needs of the LGBTQ community, as well as survivors of abuse in later life. Access the 2010 Packet for materials that are reflective of this purpose at: <http://dvam.vawnet.org/materials/>

Pakistan Disaster Relief

Pakistan is experiencing the worst flooding in recorded history with more than 1,400 people feared dead, and according to the UN an estimated 20 million affected. V-Day is working with the AMAL Human Development Network to initiate the project, Responding to Women and Families Needs in Humanitarian Crisis Situation, to raise funds towards the reduction in gender based violence, food security and promotion of safe hygiene practices among women and their families in badly flood affected areas. To make a donation, visit:
